OUTDOOR MOVIES RETURN TO FALLS PARK MAY 4

Free series features classic films Wednesday evenings in May

GREENVILLE (SC) – Moviegoers can enjoy watching a variety of classic film favorites under the stars at the City of Greenville's Fidelity Investments Moonlight Movies. The free series returns to Falls Park Wednesday evenings in May for a four-week run.

"In conjunction with the City of Greenville, we are very excited to once again sponsor the Moonlight Movies outdoor classic film series," said Mike Doucette, Vice President and Branch Manager, Fidelity Investments. "We've some great movies lined up for May, so please join us for some family fun under the moonlight!"

The films begin at sundown (approximately 8:30 p.m.), but moviegoers are invited to come early for prime viewing spots and to participate in movie-themed trivia. In addition, a costume contest is planned on May 25 for the showing of the feature film, Labyrinth.

Food vendor Poppington's Popcorn will be onsite every Wednesday and food trucks Ellada Kouzina, The Chuck Truck, Hwy 301 and Automatic Taco will rotate throughout the season. Individuals consuming alcohol at the event must purchase a $1 wristband.

For more information about the movie series, visit the City's website at events.greenvillesc.gov or follow the event on social media. A complete entertainment schedule is included below.
